

CARLSBAD LOCAL ITEMS

Frank Ross is up and around again.
Tom Blackmore came down from Artesia Monday.

Ralph Griffith left for California Wednesday night.

Mrs. Pitchford and son came in from the plains Monday.

S. P. Hostler from the lower valley was here yesterday.

Mayor D. C. Pearson, of Roswell, is in Carlsbad today.

M. A. Riggs from the lower valley was in Carlsbad today.

Mrs. Dimmitt of El Paso is the guest of Mrs. C. M. Richards.

Fred Dearborne and wife attended the picnic at Lovington.

Frank Jones and family are spending this week on their ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kerr returned Tuesday from a trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reed and children were in town yesterday.

Mrs. J. T. Woodard of Otis, is spending the week with Mrs. Beckett.

B. W. Murphy, reclamation engineer was here a few days this week.

George Adams and his uncle, J. L. Adams, went to the ranch Tuesday.

L. G. Ryan and family moved to the Woodwell cottage last Tuesday.

Ivan Thurman spent yesterday in Carlsbad getting a load of supplies.

H. T. Sizemore, of Brownwood, Texas, is moving his family to Carlsbad.

Everett Grantham is expected home from Corsicana, Texas, next Tuesday.

Mrs. Bricken, of Lake Arthur, is visiting friends in Texas, going Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gray and baby were in Sunday from their home ranch.

Dr. Durham, wife and nieces were enjoying the Lovington picnic and barbecue.

P. M. Dent, attorney for the Reclamation service, was here the first of the week.

Mrs. C. C. Green returned from her visit with her daughter in Alamogordo Tuesday.

Miss Sue Ollie, of Pecos, Texas, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Shannon, arriving Sunday.

Miss Mabel Bearup has returned from Roswell where she was the guest of Mrs. Stewart.

Mrs. Snooks Gordon and the baby boy returned with Mr. Gordon to their home, going Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. Rascoe has been confined to her bed most of the week, but is able to sit up today.

Miss Jule Cook returned Wednesday from Roswell, where she has spent the past week visiting.

Paul Redmon was operated on Tuesday for adenoids and tonsillitis and is convalescent now.

Mrs. W. E. Reamer is at the Palace hotel this week. Her husband is conductor north to Clovis.

R. E. Blackwell and J. C. Young left for Blue Springs to work on the ranch, going Tuesday.

Tom Fletcher was up from Lovington yesterday. He reports a fine rain there Tuesday morning.

Born, August 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Ora Nymeyer, of Lovington, a nine and a half pound baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson and Miss Edna, spent Tuesday in town, making the trip in their car.

John Miles and family from Tahoka, Texas, were spending the time with G. M. McGonagill and family.

Miss Lelett, who has been here for health purposes, returned to her home in Iowa, going Wednesday night.

Mrs. J. H. Hill and little daughter is visiting her people in Lake Arthur and will be away for some weeks.

W. Q. Richards, owner of the D ranch, spent Monday and Tuesday in Carlsbad and returned to the ranch.

Gladys Carder is spending the week with her little friend, Laura Perry, at the Dr. Quirey place, going Monday.

Scott Etter and family went to Lovington Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hill, fishing.

Garvin Smith received a message last Friday stating his mother was very ill. He left that night for Illinois.

Myron Clark has resumed his position as salesman with T. C. Horne after taking a vacation of eight or ten days.

W. W. Gatewood, the big Roswell lawyer, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday, making medicine for the coming term of court.

L. H. Lankford and family of wife and five children left by auto yesterday morning for Fayetteville, Ark., for a visit with Mr. Lankford's father. They will be absent a couple of months.

Mrs. J. L. Emerson and son, J. L., came in on the Monday mail car from their home in Knowles to visit with Mrs. Emerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laverty.

E. H. Pagenhart and assistant, Snook, tarried in Carlsbad Monday equipping and stocking up for a continuance of their work for the Coast and Geodetic survey in marking the highest points west of the Pecos for use in case of military necessity, or other use for Uncle Sam.

FOR SALE.—One of the best 160 acre tracts within three miles from Carlsbad with portion water right from Carlsbad project. Well improved with good feed of pure drinking water and residence. A genuine sacrifice for $12 per acre takes it. Part time. Enquire at the Current office or address Wm. H. Mullane, Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Beatie Wilson has been missed from the Joyce-Pruit company's grocery department since last Thursday and has been laid up with a very lame back caused from lifting a sack of sugar onto a wagon, wrenching his back. He ventured to the store yesterday, but did not stay very long.

Frank Barfield, wife and little daughter, Jewel, left by auto at 5:30 Tuesday morning for Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Barfield has spent most of the summer here and has gotten acquainted and may decide to spend another season here.

Mother Fredericks states the patients at the Eddy County hospital have enjoyed some lovely peaches this season brought them by Mr. Tracy from his orchard. Mrs. Fredericks has been very busy canning what they did not use fresh getting up at odd times about 200 nints. She says Mr. Tracy was very liberal bringing in all about 12 crates and they were appreciated very much. Those she canned will be used for the patients as they chance to need them.

George Fredericks, wife and two or three guests are expected to arrive in Carlsbad Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks have been away for several months, and no doubt they will be glad to return to the "beautiful".

Geo. R. Spencer and wife returned from a six week's visit on the Coast last Saturday. While absent they visited with Mr. Spencer's mother and sister in San Diego and attended both expositions.

Married in Carlsbad Tuesday evening, Miss Nell Stanford, of Lakewood, and Guy E. Sickler, of Emporia, Kansas, Rev. J. T. Redmon officiating.

MADE-TO-MEASURE CLOTHES. Did you ever think about buying made-to-measure clothes at their value? As an inducement to you to see what I am offering, in strictly made-to-measure suits and overcoats, I will allow you two dollars off of list price (which is now cheaper than hand-me-downs). Every fiber guaranteed all wool and made up in latest models.

HAT AND CLOTHES HOSPITAL.

Frank Farrel accompanied by Mrs. Thalia Bowles, of Uvalde, Texas, who has been visiting them, were here Wednesday. Mrs. Bowles is an aunt of Mrs. Farrel and was enroute for home.

F. H. Richards, justice of the peace, received a message Tuesday that his sister in Chicago had died suddenly and he left at once for Chicago.

Virgil Allbritton, wife and daughter, returned from the picnic at Lovington Friday, making the trip in the new Overland. They went to the ranch Sunday and expect to stay out there until school opens.

Charley Hawton, wife and two children, also his mother, Mrs. Hawton, arrived last week and are the guests of Mrs. Mudgett. Mother Hawton and Mrs. Mudgett have been friends for many years. Charley is buying sheep, having bought 800 or more around Carlsbad. Mr. Hawton, Misses Mabel and Zadah Mudgett left Saturday for Hope and other points north.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Acrey were in from the ranch Tuesday and are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Rome Ohnemus.

F. G. Walters, of Roswell, was in town yesterday to boost the Labor Day celebration of that burg.

Mrs. Allen Heard and Miss Mona came in from the High Lonesome ranch Tuesday and are at their home residence in Carlsbad.

John Murrell and Nat Camp returned from Lovington Tuesday.

Jim Simpson, John Hewett, Will Fenton, and Bob Richards were in Carlsbad Wednesday.

H. B. Johnson, who was at the Eddy County Hospital so long, is now at the Rightway hotel and is improving some.

James T. Stalker was very ill for the past ten days in Clovis. He is here now.

Dr. May, the dentist, returned Tuesday from a trip to Santa Fe by way of El Paso.

Don't worry about what you will find in Heaven; the God who made the earth can be trusted to create a Heaven for his creatures. We shall be busy enough if we fit ourselves for the next world by doing our duty here.

It was Emperor Ku of China (2435 years before Christ) who said: "No virtue is higher than the love of all men, and there is no loftier aim in government than to profit all men."

Rev. A. A. Davis, of Pecos, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of Carlsbad, came in Tuesday for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Myron K. Clark.

STRAYED.—From Barnes' place 4 miles west of Carlsbad, five angora goat bucks. Information leading to recovery will be rewarded by I. F. TAYLOR, Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Guy Herbert and son, Harold, of Roswell, passed through in their car enroute for home yesterday. Guy is tax assessor of Travis county.

Mr. and Mrs. Skidmore, Mr. Richards of the D ranch, also Miss Mabel Hartshorn, came to town Monday. Miss Mabel speaks in glowing terms of her two weeks stay at the ranch. She attended the round-up and enjoyed the fruit, saying in the last two weeks they had canned and preserved over 155 gallons of choice fruit. Mr. Richards took out an Edison this trip and says hereafter when they have young ladies visiting they can dance when they please. Richard Merchant returned with them to the ranch Tuesday afternoon. He was returning from the celebration at Lovington.

Mrs. Alva Shafer and the little one-year-old grand daughter, Lucile Vivion, is visiting her son, Earnest Shafer and wife on Rocky. Mrs. Shafer is from Blackwell, Texas, and arrived yesterday. Lucile Vivion's father is one of the Carrizozo Spring's Vivions. When we hear the name we see large cattle ranches and good homes.

The Sprongs have leased the Missouri hotel to Mr. and Mrs. Anton Heinz. Mrs. Heinz has cooked for the Bates hotel for a number of years. They will take charge September 1st. Mrs. Sprong expects to go to Amarillo, Tuesday, where she will visit with her daughters for a month or two. Mr. Sprong will be here during court and will visit his daughters on the plains.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Thursday, Father Lawrence and Father Theodosia, of Clovis, Edward, and Christine Walterscheid and Maggie Kircher went to Avalon and spent the day. They had a picnic dinner. Father Theodosia was anxious to see the concrete work. They went swimming and made kodak pictures and spent a very pleasant day.

Father Lawrence returned to Artesia last night. He is very fond of the children of St. Edward's and says it's hard to stay away from Carlsbad.

Mr. Saul and wife, of Miami, Texas, are visiting Bill Jones and wife at their home on Rocky.

Mr. Whatley, of Roswell, came down Wednesday and is stenographer for S. D. Stennis, Jr., while Miss Francis Nutt is enjoying her vacation.

E. W. Waite and family are now moving into the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Passenden.

Walter Pendleton went to El Paso, Texas, Monday on the train and is expected home today by auto.

Robert, Florence and Celia Reamers of Artesia are spending a week at the Brockman home, coming last Saturday and returning tomorrow. They have had a pleasant stay. Maggie, Elsie and Caroline Kircher, with their mother, were there Wednesday. The children had a picnic dinner and Elsie and Caroline spent the night.

During the Lovington picnic and barbecue J. G. Osborn, of Carlsbad, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McGonagill at the latter's home ranch. J. S. Logsdon and wife also their son and wife, all of Logsdon, Texas, were also guests of the McGonagills. The home of Chas. McGonagill is a splendid one, and well located. A fine well of water and tank and from this tank a small orchard is watered and the editor was given some large fine Elberta peaches, extra large and well flavored, that he helped pick from the trees, which proved a lunch in itself on the way to town.

The family of N. B. Butcher have returned from the ranch, coming Thursday of last week and are ready for school. The girls are glad to be in town again after a pleasant stay on the ranch.

Miss Cora Smith returned to her home in Artesia Saturday night, after an extended visit with her brothers, Henry and Elbert Smith and Mrs. Leon Mudgett.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Mrs. Valley Owen returned yesterday from Artesia, where she has been nursing Mr. Montgomery for a few weeks.

Richard R. Archer, of the Albuquerque Morning Journal called at the Current office this morning. He is returning from El Paso.

Will Sprong and wife were up from the Harroun farm at Malaga Wednesday and little Ruth returned with them and will possibly attend school in Malaga if grandmother don't come back.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

B. W. Brock, brother-in-law of L. J. Destree, is now in town. He was helping with the Black river school buildings, which they have completed and all the carpenters are home.

Mrs. Phil Kircher met the train from the south yesterday and had for her guests last night Thelma, Anna Belle and John Tipton. They have spent the summer with an aunt in Texas and went on to Roswell today, where their Grand-add Archer will keep them for a few days visit and they will go home in time for school.

J. W. Gamel and the two children arrived in Carlsbad Wednesday. They are stopping at the Rom Holt residence for the present. Mr. Gamel came down yesterday afternoon and he will be head man with the Joyce-Pruit dry goods department after the first of next month.

Mr. Laverty, tired of playing the role of summer widower, quietly went his way Monday. We find he's heading for Colorado, Texas, and will accompany Mrs. Laverty home about the 1st of September. He expects to visit Dr. Quirey while there as they are spending the summer in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. W. A. Reynolds and little son Heard of Pecos came in last Saturday and spent a few days in Carlsbad the guest of Mrs. A. C. Heard and Mrs. T. C. Horne. Mrs. Reynolds has a position as cashier of the Pecos Mercantile company and speaks highly of a Carlsbad boy, J. C. Wilson, who is making good with that firm. Mrs. Reynolds returned to her home yesterday.

Rev. Stanley Jones, of Hagerman, was helped from the train Wednesday and carried to the Eddy County Hospital and operated on for appendectomy. He is doing nicely.

Mr. Stein, of Denver, Colorado, came to the Eddy County Hospital Saturday. He has asthma and as this is the one climate for people suffering from asthma he is improving.

L. A. Shipman, who has been to Queen looking over some government holdings, was enroute for home Saturday.

Tom Runyan and family, also Rube Segrest, stopped over in Carlsbad at the Bates hotel Saturday night, enroute for their home in Lakewood. They are just returning from the expositions and have been away two months. They went to Lakewood in their car Sunday.

Wednesday, F. J. Keid and M. E. Gardner, of Williams, Arizona, passed through Carlsbad in a car.

C. M. Houghton purchased this week 3,000 lambs from the Alston brothers, C. T. Adams and Cal Williams on the plains, for his feeding pens at Barstow, Texas. The lambs brought $3.50.

B. Y. P. U. SOCIAL.

The B. Y. P. U. of the local Baptist church, will hold a social at the church and parsonage this evening at eight o'clock. An informal program has been arranged for the entertainment of the members and their friends. All young people not identified with any young people's organization, are especially invited to be present.

Arthur Spencer, formerly pitcher for the High school team in Carlsbad, is now playing as pitcher with the Chulavista, Cal., team and the team is in the city league of San Diego and has lost but two games out of eleven and now ranks first in the league. "Whitie's" many friends will be pleased to know he is making good. He graduated from the High school in the class of 1912.

Ira Taylor has moved his family to town, and will occupy the Jim Lorton residence west of town that Mr. Lorton sold some time ago to Vernie Ramus. Mrs. Taylor expects to send the children to school. They came in Wednesday.

T. L. Flowers, a brother of J. F. Flowers arrived Tuesday from Clarksville, Tennessee, and will spend a few weeks with his brother and family.

Mrs. J. F. Flowers and the two girls, returned from a visit to Lovington Sunday. While there they were the guests of Mrs. Rossen.

Messdames Shannon and Hatfield, and Miss Sue Ollie, spent Wednesday at the C. W. Beeman home in Malaga, going down on the early train and returning the same day. They had a very pleasant day.

The family of N. B. Butcher have returned from the ranch, coming Thursday of last week and are ready for school. The girls are glad to be in town again after a pleasant stay on the ranch.

Miss Cora Smith returned to her home in Artesia Saturday night, after an extended visit with her brothers, Henry and Elbert Smith and Mrs. Leon Mudgett.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Mrs. Valley Owen returned yesterday from Artesia, where she has been nursing Mr. Montgomery for a few weeks.

Richard R. Archer, of the Albuquerque Morning Journal called at the Current office this morning. He is returning from El Paso.

Will Sprong and wife were up from the Harroun farm at Malaga Wednesday and little Ruth returned with them and will possibly attend school in Malaga if grandmother don't come back.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Hereford Registered Bulls JUST RECEIVED Yearlings to Twos

MISSOURI, KANSAS AND ILLINOIS BRED.

Can be seen at Rackley's Pens, west side of Carlsbad

J. F. Rarey

J. W. Austin and wife of San Antonio, Texas, were in Carlsbad Tuesday. He represents the cattlemen's association.

Mrs. T. O. Wymann and Mary Sue left yesterday morning for an extended visit in Ballinger, Texas, with a sister, her parents and a sister from Kentucky will arrive in Ballinger about the same time and the family will enjoy a reunion.

Leola Smith, the little daughter of Mrs. Red Smith, west of town, was reported very ill Monday with threatened typhoid fever.

Don't forget the Fifth Sunday Sunday school convention held here next Sunday. All come and make it a grand success.

Little Preston Robb was moved to tears over the loss of his faithful dog, Prince. The dog died Sunday from the effects of poison that some one had put out for some purpose, surely not for Prince, for he was a quiet dog and only watched the residence and romped with his little master, Preston.

Miss Ida Breeding who returned recently from Berkeley, California, left Wednesday morning for El Paso, Texas, where she has accepted a position in the El Paso school. Misses Ida Breeding and Edna Johnson, two of the graduates from Silver City Normal, are very enthusiastic over the school work this coming year. Miss Breeding took a course in Manual art and play ground work, and will teach in the Real school in El Paso.

The Misses Kernodles returned from the Pacific Coast Monday, where they have spent the summer enjoying California. They say the fair was all and more than they expected it to be. Outside of seeing the fair in San Francisco, they spent most of the summer in Los Angeles and Pasadena and are home now feeling fine and ready for work. Miss Amanda will open her private school the first Monday in September.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Dr. T. E. Presley, of the firm of Drs. Presley & Swearingin, specialist eye, ear, nose and throat, will be in Carlsbad 24 to 27 and from 5 to 10 of each month in Dr. Friedman's office.

Do you want to quit farming and convert your farm into Kansas City rental property, and have a monthly income? If so, send a complete description of your farm to the Shaw Realty Company, Reserve Building, Kansas City, Missouri, who have a number of clients with good income properties to exchange for irrigated farms.

If you MUST swear, call at the Current office and do it legally. Notary always in.

A few couples of Carlsbad young people traveled to the Meripant residence Tuesday evening and spent a few pleasant hours tripping the light fantastic toe and eating cream and cake. Those having the pleasure were Misses Althea Harris, Josephine Tracy, Nannie Usery, Mrs. Tracy, Messrs. Hines, Lusk, Shacklack, Green, McKim and Kindel.

Something extra at the next meeting of the Woodman's Circle. All are expected to attend.

Your application for final proof made out free of charge at this office. Bring all your filing papers.

Mr. White and his two sons are going on a camping trip in the Guadalupe mountains. They leave today.

Rhame Ohnemus, wife, Bill Ohnemus and Sadie Margaret attended the big barbecue in Lovington last week and visited at the ranch of Pedro Etcheverry while there.

THE CLOTHES PROBLEM SOLVED AT LAST.

Why Buy These Shoddy Hand-Me-Downs?

I'll furnish you a strictly made-to-measure suit, all wool and made up in style at the following prices:
$13.00 for Coat and Pants.
16.00 Nothing like them ever seen in Carlsbad.
17.50 You must see them at HAT AND CLOTHES HOSPITAL.

Christian & Co., INSURANCE.

Classified Advertisements

FOR SALE.—Fine yellow, cling peaches—the best for pickles and preserving on the market.

MRS. WARREN GOSSETT.

FOR RENT.—Furnished room, good location. Apply second door north of Baptist church.

Allison is the place that you can buy The cheapest goods underneath the sky. Many things of the highest grade. Through low prices are made to wade. Machines of the highest type are sold at prices that startle weak and bold. Seize this chance both poor and rich. On to a good thing one time to hatch. For he that finds Allison's Store, Will bless his stars forever more.

J. F. ALLISON, South of Springs Hotel.

EDDY GROVE CAMP W. O. W.

Meets first Thursday night each month at W. O. W. Hall. Visiting sovereigns and members urged to attend.

A. R. O'QUINN, Clerk. BOB HAMBLE, C. C.

THE RICHEST OF THE PUREST

ICE CREAM OF CANDIES

SWEETS OF QUALITY

The Sweet Shop

Let us figure your bills . . . 'Phone 66

JUST A WORD
Why Not Keep Carlsbad money in Carlsbad?
WE RUN A LUMBER YARD—
And a Lumber Yard Only

We are complete in Lumber, Lime, Lath, Cement, Plaster, Posts, Shingles, Sash, Doors, Screen Doors and Roofing

—Try—

Carlsbad Lumber Co.
OLD GROVES STAND

For Prompt and Courteous Treatment
No Bill Too Large nor Too Small

'Phone 66 . . . Let us figure your bills